A Tribute to a Great Principal

Mr. Carl O. Butler one of the best of the high school principals. He had a lot of pride in the organizations and activities of H.H.S. but his highest priority was the education and welfare of the students.

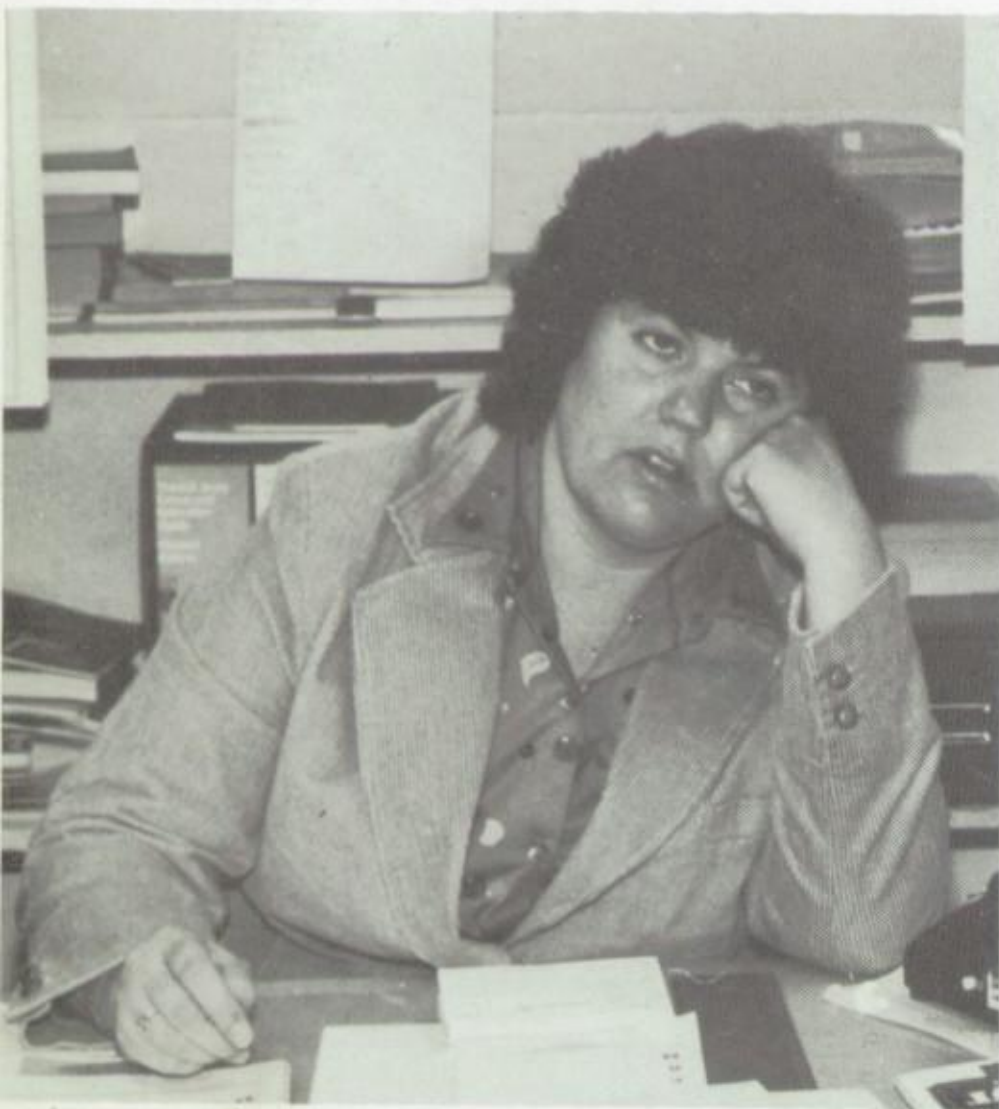

Administration's Life at HHS

A very organized librarian, Mrs. Herzer.

A day in the life of a high school principal.

"And they call me a counselor."

Mr. Latham taking care of serious business.

Superintendent

Mr. Harold Latham — Hartshorne High School Superintendent

Mr. Latham stops just in time to pose for the camera.

Taking time out to talk to visitors is part of Mr. Latham's job.

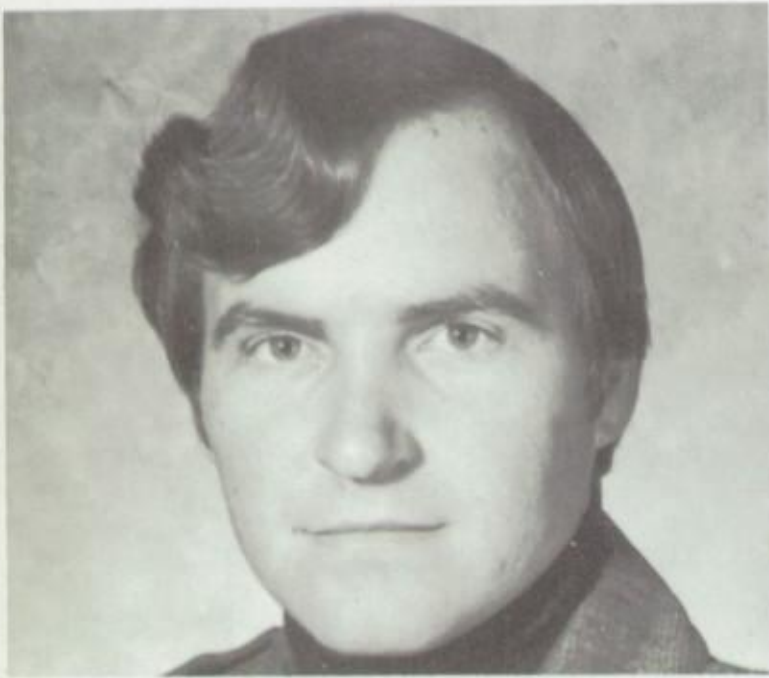

Mrs. Mattioda and Mrs. Sherill help Mr. Latham with office details.

High School Principal

Has he flipped his wig?

Remember when . . .

Mr. Timmons helps with enrollment

Solving Problems!!!

Jr. High Principal

Senna Butler Whittington is the first woman principal at the Hartshorne Public Schools. She has been administrating for one year.

Ms. Whittington's right hand woman.

"Your attention please!"

Counselors, Aides, Librarians

High School office workers are: Monte Johnson, Kirste Glenn, Jason Wilson, Carol Morgan, secretary; Paige Davis, Kristi Ranallo, Jana Riley, and Mr. Timmons, principal.

Ms. Dianne Owens, High School counselor, takes a minute out of her busy schedule to smile for the cameraman.

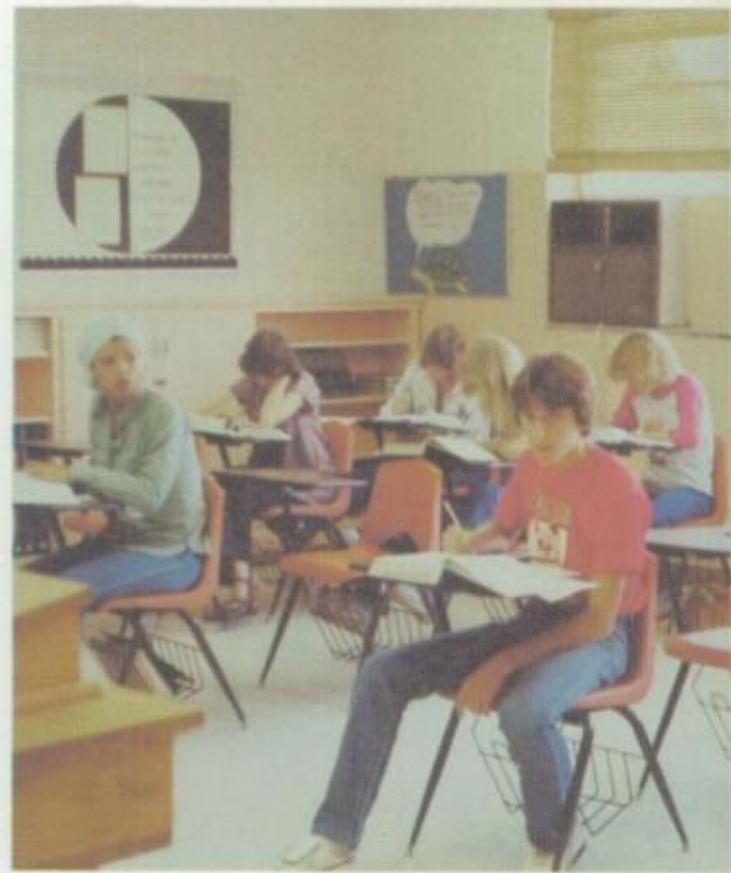

Mrs. Sue Lentz, Jr. High counselor, seems to be enjoying her new job.

Librarians, and aides are: Mrs. Mary Ann Collins, librarian, Duane Holloway, Evie Stackman, Johnie Johnson, John Bolt, Jeff Hoppert, Robbie Snider, Jill Bourland, Teresa Almendariz, Mrs. Ranallo, librarian, and Mrs. Herzer, librarian.

Another Day, Another Dollar.

"Do I Dare Relax?"

Support Personnel

Wesley Simmons does what he does best.

The cooks are Left to right: Louise Satoris, Cathy Thomason, Lillie Wyatt, and Ramona Watkins.

It looks as if Bob Chronister; assisted by O.D. Baldwin has "had a hard night."

Butch Semeski, is this the way you work at H.J.H.?

The cooks keep busy preparing the meals for the students lunches.

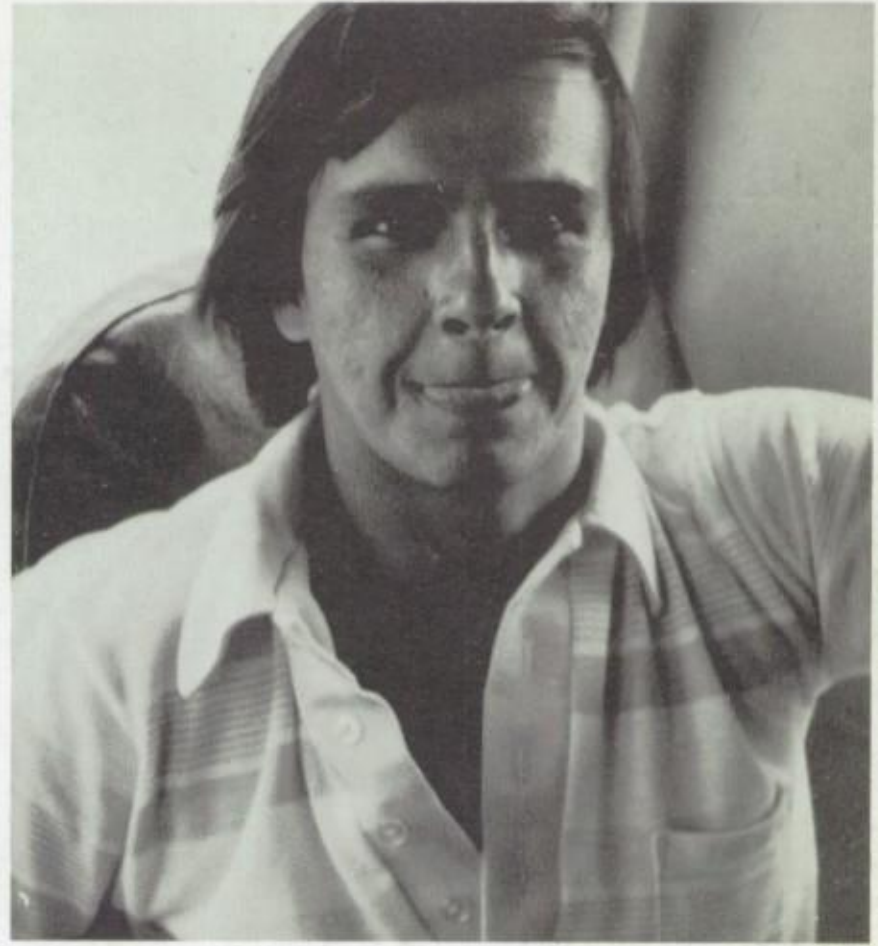

Johnny James takes his time off to smile for the camera.

Seniors

What is Ceasar smiling about?

Is this the image of a happy TACO?

Have the three stooges been into trouble again!!!

Is Randy concentrating on getting beamed up???

THE AMERICAN LEGION PLUNKETT-HANCOCK POST 180

We care about the welfare of our young people. Post 180 believes in the leadership of our young adults. Each school year Post 180 sponsors awards, College Scholarships, and "American Legion Boys' State" to help further the cause for young Americans. Auxiliary Unit 180 believes in the good promotion of our young ladies by sponsoring "American Legion Girls' State." The American Legion and Auxiliary believe in good education and the study of our great nation, its ideals, goals and history.

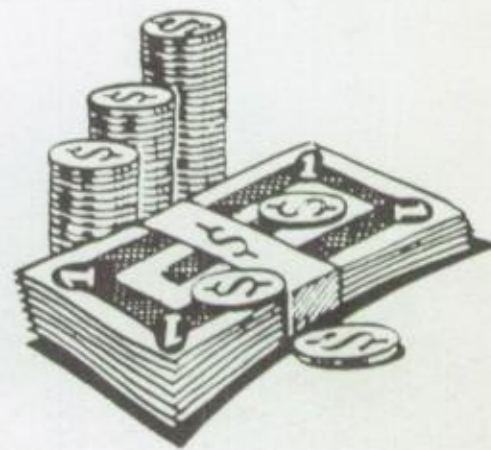

The idea of a sound education and belief in our great country, its heritage and history is stressed by American Legion-sponsored scholarships. Post 180 believes these services offered by the legion are better accepted.

In memory of our days at H.H.S. the yearbook staff presents to you, the student body, The Miner 83'. The memories of laughter, tears, joy, and sorrow we shared at H.H.S. will remain with each of us throughout our lives. Each page of the Miner 83' will hold special meaning to each of us.

At this time I would like to express my appreciation to the school board, faculty, community, and yearbook staff and sponsor, Mrs. Kathryn Pitchford for all their dedication and patience throughout the year. A special thanks goes to Mr. Bailey who spent long, tiring hours processing so many pictures which helped the entire staff.

I hope you will enjoy the 1982-83 edition of "The Miner."
